NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

No.3

A VERY BUSY TIME INDEED!!

And so we enter the final weeks of November and the crazy festive season soon descends. Last week was a wonderful week of Autumn walks and seasonal investigation. Children were busily looking at decaying pumpkins and then swiftly moved onto discovering all about the colours around us at this time of year. The next weeks are very busy, keep an eye on school spider to help keep updated.

WHOOPS A DAISY!!!

Our festive production takes place at Wade Deacon very soon. Tickets will be on sale this Friday via school spider and are limited. Older siblings may come as a ticket holder but we ask that younger siblings stay at home. We appreciate the difficult position this may place some families in however this is a big stage for our little people and we aim to reduce the number of distractions. The children have been working hard on their group dances and it should be a memorable show!

LATE COLLECTION

A reminder that morning session ends at 12.00. Staff then have a very short time to have a lunch break and be ready for the afternoon. Continued late collection will be discussed on an individual basis and charge for lunchtime care required for frequent lateness.

This weeks big questions is
HOW DO WE MAKE AUTUMN COLOURS?
This a week focussed on creativity and colour mixing so it may get messy!
